

Fluoride concentrations were analyzed by the APHA SPADNS colourimetric method.

A new calibration curve was run each time when the fluoride concentrations of the samples were determined.

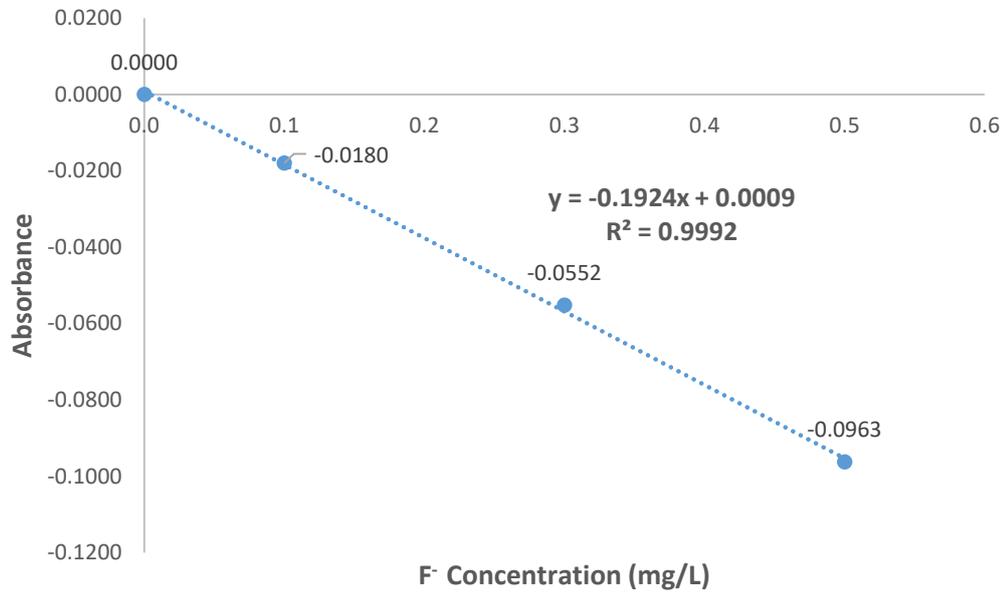

Figure 1: The graph of Absorbance vs. Fluoride concentration