ABOUT UNIVERSAL WISER PUBLISHER

Universal Wiser Publisher (UWP) advocates to foster open scientific exchange and make our journals as dissemination platforms to promote academic studies across various disciplines. We adhere to the quality of scholarly journals under a highly efficient and rigorous peer-review process. Researchers and experts worldwide are welcomed to join our peer-review team to assess the validity, quality and originality of articles for publication.

ABOUT ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION RESEARCH

Environmental Protection Research (EPR) offers a platform for environmentalists and researchers throughout the world to publish new findings that cover the relationships between environmental sciences and protection research. EPR aims to become a multidisciplinary journal for publication of research on the scientific aspects of environmental protection, which interfaces the prevention and control of air, water, soil, noise and other pollution.
